Remembering Zella . . .

Zella and her husband Gene joined Franklin County Country Club in the 1940's following World War II. A plaque reading "E.K. Spani Room" can be found on the card room door in honor of Gene for his loyalty and contributions to FCCC. He spent many hours playing cards with his friends in that room. Gene died in 2003.

Zella, a retired school teacher, continued her membership through 2016 and enjoyed being a part of the Ladies Association for many years. She recently passed away just short of her 100th birthday, July 25, 2017.

Rest in peace sweet friend.
